for those who sugested it...since the sniper tourney will take place once stryder becomes ungrounded again, But it has occured to me that this maybe a good time to not only use renguard just in case, but also see what you guys think.

Do you think that for the sniper tourney (at least) UGINsvr should use Renguard? yes or no...(and i'll put up a proper vote in UGIN's forums too)

I believe it's a good idea since we cant have mods in there as a spectator and even if we could it's a bad idea.

I wouldn't run a legitimate tournament without it. By the time your tournament runs, I'm sure the newest version will be out, and it's awesome.

crimson has spoken...we have to have it stryder...even if we have to pin down mike and hyjack his server to do it.

Besides what TwARenx said to me the other day sunk in. The tourney wont be taken seriously without it. Some people may not enter because we arent using it and at least in the tourney we know it was skill or lag that killed us.
