Banned both him and YuTuS for crashing servers. That's not something we are going to condone.

Our server has been shut down over 3 days now by this yutus guy.

In order to get them back i did with help 1 attack on there in the hope they will quit.

I have no intensions what so ever to do it again and I hope you reconsider that ban.

Ask other blocs from the renegade community about my status,

I am not involved neither is my clan, in hacking or shutting servers.

All we want is a peacefull game on our own servers.

We never started this in 1st place. Cheers.

An excuse (apology from me)

Here is our proof about YuTuS

This i can understand somewhere.

But ch4ever, this YuTuS fagot it was one of YOUR clan members fucking around with our servers and Bajadera's.

It was done because we had to show YuTuS fuckerror that we can do the exact same thing as he can.

Like i explained on IRC it was a one time only.

Since this YuTuS knows this he hasnt crashed any server anymore.

So our message got to his n00bmind i guess.

Sorry for the trouble for ONLY once crashing your server. I know it sucks and it will not ever happen again.

Baja server has suffered crashes everyday.

Please reallow bajadera as he has done nothing wrong.

Yes he shouldn't have done what he did but it was a knee jerk reaction.

Anyone can see this.

Crashing server is not good at all, we all want to play our favorite game Renegade.

About YuFuS: i think that is correct he is hacking, not only servers but also personal accounts of WOL members (including their pw).

So a ban is in place here. After reading your stories about this person that it is not his first time doing this. (hacking server etc).

About Bajadera: i really think that it is over reacting for a ban.

It's a reaction that i can understand (but it's not good) he also apologized for this and says that it was just one time. So please make unban him and give him a warning or something.

I hope you will do this MAC

Thanks a lot,

Greetz Synpro.
