I have posted some videos I found on <http://www.the-ownage.com>.

Note I am not trying to promote the-ownage, its just a personal box that I am testing various CMS (Content Management Systems/Software) on.

Anyhow, the E3 Videos are there and free to download for those who didn't get to go and want to see what goes on there.

No shit, thus why I bothered to explain that the site is just for testing stuff and not meant to be a real site. :rolleyes:
