GameSpy (aka GaySpy) sucks. Switch to WOL and be a happy man!

Don't use Gayspy. Gayspy sucks. Use WOL.

He wants to use GameSpy, if you can't contribute anything useful then just shut the fuck up.

shifty: Sometimes GameSpy crashes because you've got some ports blocked that it needs to use.
Are you using a firewall or a router?

Gamespy crashing is nature's way of getting you to play on actual game servers, not some garbagy trashy crap that loads stupid stuff on your computer without telling you.

I have the same dumb problem.. When I click on it, loading takes ages (it was fast before) and before I can click on connect it crashes. And even if it doesn't crash, and I click on connect, it crashes soon after that.. And NO my pc is not fucked.

here's an idea: GAMESPY IS A PIECE OF SHIT.

I put up with it for two years before i finally had enough of stupid ads that you can't exit out of, and their crappy control-freakedness.
their articles suck ass too.

dudes, get All Seeing Eye.

it ownz everything. Trust me.

(while i don't promote using cracks, etc., let's just say that they are out there for ASE and we'll leave it at that :twisted:)
