Went to westwood.com and notice they redesigned the main page. I like this version better than the previous one. What do you think ?

I think that the Old ones were much more appealing. These ones give a faster access to each game yet the overall design does not match with the other pages, unless they are doing a complete make over for everything...

i think that they want to close the ww site , and that's the reason why they made a new design, you can't find informations about the WW - now it's only a navigation page...

I like it - but I don't think that anything new will appear there, it looks more like an archive Agreed. There's no hiding the feeling EA's trying to phase out the whole thing as smoothly as possible.
