A texture is for a map? Not for a character?

A texture is something applied to a 3D model, whether it be a level, structure, vehicle, soldier, rock, tree, bush, whatever... It's a texture map.

Quote:You mean the grey one with the embroidered logo?

Yes, the one I'm wearing in this picture.

Yep at first only people who pre orderd got the extra skins, if I'm correct. I remember a friend trying to get the skins out of the always.dat file so he could use them also, to bad it was already after the date that they were unlocked to everyone.
