Damn, we need a patch to fix this newly found FDS exploit. Every.. 30 minutes or so I get a:

11[ 14 11: 27 11: 30 11 ]    11[@ ByteServ 11] :   9Initializing Westwood Online Mode
11[ 14 11: 27 11: 30 11 ]    11[@ ByteServ 11] :   9Logging onto USA Server when your server drops for any reason it leaves a ghost like when you lose connection with irc..

unless you change FDS name you wont be able to make a channel until your ghost dies and it does not help with n00bs trying to join your ghosted game it just stays there longer

I've got an IRC script that changes the ini to an alternate server name when it's crashed, but it's still annoying, usually 64 people are disconnected.

No. This isn't n00bstories.

Also caused by players sitting in the channel still. If your server crashes and someone site in the channel, it won't be able to create a new one until those players leave. Similar to what Majiin Vegeta said above.

No, it's not that, it's the actual crashing I care about.

Nothing you can do, except hope you don't make enemies with hackers...
