Yes, I have. This doesn't have anything to do with BCF. Even with BCF running Brenbot doesn't report the info in IRC.

Sure, why don't we forgive and forget about the whole Holocaust thing, and see how long it takes for that to happen again. The people in this community deserve to know the fact that you're a liar and a thief. If they want to forgive you and trust you, let them. It won't be my back being stabbed again in the future.

As far as I am concerned, this discussion is over. Be gone, thief.

You haven't given us any good reason to forgive you, unless you consider acting like an arrogant ass and lying to everyone to be worthy of a nice attitude from us. It'll take a lot of work and time to forgive what you did, and I'm sure you probably couldn't care less. Just leave us the hell alone, we really don't care to put up with your wonderful personality. Ugh, couldn't resist. What a joke, you think we're going to allow you to decieve us twice? We may have jumped the gun the first time, but there's no way in hell we're doing it again. Especially since you've even threatened us on the SM forums...For something that I've repeatedly told you that we are not doing. Get over it, we're not attacking you...We'd just prefer you stay away from us, considering you won't be banned from here.( :rolleyes: ) Can you do that instead of offering a server?

I'm not bragging about it, I'm stating you wouldn't need to worry about me releasing them because they're still on my server. If it means anything, they're not on my computer.

Only reason I haven't deleted them is because I haven't remoted into the box for awhile. I was going to when I was changing my WOL names, but my dog escaped and got me sidetracked.

Aside from the fact that that makes no sense, my point is that you still have them. And yes, I would worry about you releasing it because you - still - have - them. If you didn't, then there wouldn't BE a way for them to get released again. But then again it wouldn't matter if you told me it was deleted, you've already proven to be a compulsive liar. I'm not going to continue this here...if you absolutely want to speak with me I'm sure you'll find a way.

Sure, I've lied about a few things, but I wouldn't classify it as even close to compulsive. I'm not releasing the files again. I even decided to delete all your stuff from my server where WD put it. Here's some screenshots if you really need them. He had it all thrown on the desktop as well as in the C:\ drive.

DAMMIT, my blood is boiling again. Why the fuck did he have to come back? He's an asshole. Everybody knows that he's an asshole and I doubt that he's ever going to change whether he says we have his word or any other bullshit he promises. I know it's just the internet, but he makes it so hard to keep calm. I can honestly say that there are very few people that I can say I "hate." Alkaline is definetely on the top of that list. If he WILL be good, I won't mind, but if he continues to act like a fucking moron, I really will push for him to be banned again.

Me or xptek? Either way, you're mistaken. Best now would be for you to shut up and go back to the black hole you came from. God has never made a mistake in creating anybody, but I am positive that you are the closest to a mistake as anyone can be.

Controversy = Publicity

On a more serious note, jball and xptek want trouble just as much as Alkaline. I think it would've been funny if no one cared Alkaline was back. In fact, that's probably why he's back, for attention, for challenge.

Just want his ass gone. I actually like arguing to prove a point, so that somewhat entices (sp) me to post.

And how are you gonna take me down? You're not smart enough to out debate me. You're not witty enough to out wit me. You're not strong enough to beat me down. You can't win, better to just recognize that I own your ass (in a non-sexual way).

Thing is, I'm not hated by the majority of the community. Only the Black-Cell members and some n00bstories members who think what I did is immoral. You, on the other hand just troll the forums and use excessive amounts of smiley faces.

Drop it already. Flashing images aren't going to prove that your penis is bigger than the other person. Quit the incessant flaming and stop acting like preschoolers.
