Read here to get a better understanding of how midweek madness works.

Clans who are signed up for this tournament will play once a week. Every wednesday in fact. As this is mid-week! The clans will organise a time on wednesday to play their game with the clan they are scheduled to play.

You can play any time on wednesday as the WnC Server is free all day and moderators will be on around the clock for when you do decide to play. If 2 matches conflict with one another then LaDront has kindly said he could host a server also for this event.

The map you will be playing each wednesday will be shown on the scheduling page on this site. You will play the map twice against the clan. One time you are NOD on the map and the other you are GDI.

You wont know which clan you play on which map until it is shown in the schedule. So some clans may be better on some than others.

May I also point out that RenGuard will be running on the server, whether it is pure mode or not is to be established. We have respected clans in the tournament so I dont think their will be cheating, but just as a precaution.

Each clan is to have 5 elite clan members representing their clan. And have 2 on reserve for every game just if a member isn't able to make it at the last minute. Fail to show up all together as a clan without notifying the moderators will result in -1 points from your score on the ladder system.

BRenBot will be on the server so we can moderate through IRC. All other modules on BR will be disabled and message/s etc will be removed to prevent interruption. 2 moderators will be watching through IRC to see all what people say in-game. And monitor the scores etc. 2 moderators will be in-game standing on the pedestal, 1 on each team. To monitor the K/D and so on. If you accidentally kill them thats fine, but be aware their there for a reason and not to point whore off.

After the game has finished. Screenshots must be taken by both commanders of the clan's teams. And by moderators in-game and sent to wncserv1@acj-cripz.com

After the game has ended, all 4 moderators will look at the statistics of the players and decide on their own a player from each team to be nominated. The person with the most nominations at the end of the tournament will earn them money. Moderators must not discuss nominations and must do it of their own accord. And again send their nominations to wncserv1@acj-cripz.com

Moderators - 1.)HolyD3vil

2 mods will be on IRC watching over the game

Teams After you have discussed this with your clan and decided who your 5 elite members and reservers you are having please send an e-mail to admin@acj-cripz.com with that list. If people are unable to make certain days you must notify us of who is replacing them in good time.

Points

Win: 3 points

Loss: 0 points

Fail to show up: -2 points

RenGuard - active

I am going to activate RenGuard on the server, it should be in pure mode. But i know if it is then people can not have reticles etc. For me, I dont have the original reticle, I have the reticle out of the Fubar pack. So it will most likely not be in pure-mode, but please download renguard, as it has a tendency to kick if they aint got it ^^

Winner

The Winner will be decided by the clan at the end of the tournament who has the most points. If their is a draw, both clans will have another match until the best clan wins.

Prize/s

I am willing to give £100 to the winning clan. They will then provide details either to send the money in the post. Or by depositing the money into their bank accounts. We would like it if the clan leader/s would use the money to benefit the clan. Or can share the money between members of the clan. If the home clan wins the tournament the money will go straight to the runners up.

Their will also be a player ladder. Every game, moderators will nominate a member from each clan participating. So 1 game, 2 teams, 1 member nominated from each team. Nominations must be considered after the game has ended based on player performance and teamwork. Moderators are not allowed to discuss their choices. And they will send an e-mail to wncserv1@acj-cripz.com with their nominations and the most nominations at the end of the event will result in that member earning themselves £20 - not much but they can do what they like with the money.

We are a new clan. Got some great members.
