Is there any way to fix that stupid collision bug that catapults you into a blue hell if you hit another vehicle just right? Because it happened to me twice today, and I got angry...

I hope they can fix it, but i don`t think so.

It`s a good suicide attack..... :rolleyes:

But sometimes when it happens and get out of your tank(in the "air") you just walk around with 2/3 FPS and you can`t see yourself till you die
