<http://www.st0rmhosting.com/ug/files/Mods/SS101Inst.exe> (Mirrored by Deadaim00)

In case you didn't know:

Sole Survivor is a Renegade total conversion that includes 8 different game modes, over 14 multiplayer maps, 11 characters, 17+ vehicles and all new weapons for all-out team-based multiplayer combat fun.

Why not read up on how to play the game by reading the official manual here?:

The mod looks fun but some of the textures look too plain and need a lot of work. Of course, it's better than anything I've attempted in photoshop

Quote:*note to idiots:

That's not a virus, i wouldn't do that. It's a Bink executable video file... i made it an exe so everyone could view it*

Then why did Norton tell me otherwise when I downloaded the last video?

We would NEVER put Trojans in any of our downloads. Bink saves space and time, and allows everyone to watch them. If people downloaded bink, we could just put up the bik movies.

Dirrect connect info:

IP: 67.18.114.130

Port: 4848

Point RenIP to your Sole Survivor exe.

Please note: SomeRhino, Bigwig, and Panther are all administrators on the server.

Ahh!!!! DAMMIT! I have that stupid bug where I can't see any servers on WOL. This sucks, I had this during beta 4 too, and I was hoping that they had fixed it. I have no objects.ddb file or anything in my data folder, so I don't know what's wrong.

AprimeGo check the topic in the General Discussion Forum, the problem was solved, his server was infected by a virus and over 500 were also infected by it.

That wasn't it, the mod is virus free according to PC-Cillian. When I connect to WOL, I see no servers, even though there are servers up, and when I try direct connect, I get a version mismatch error. When I set up a LAN game using two computers, I can't connect to the other. My internet is functioning properly, and renegade and renalert work fine.
