Your IRC section of the tutorial is flawed and you are illegally distributing mIRC keys, which is bad considering this guy lives off the money from registration and some of it goes to the less fortunate kids.

lol, its just as bad as getting a code without buying it. I guess most ppl get key-gens and other serials thats not for them.

My guess is that most ppl that have mIRC and play renegade are using an illegal key. And theres not much to be able to stop them unless he makes a new system that requires web activation of ip address or 1 time use keys
