Rofl, no way! I have one too.

Do you have the mouse game? I remember its true name... I should check sometime, it's been ages since the last time I've played on it, loading those tapes used to be a pain in the butt, wonder if it would be now.

EDIT: Corrected the errors, I was so freaking tired yesterday.

I don't know about that, but you could use a Commodore emulator and download the games to your PC.
