I was hosting a game on GameSpy for a friend of mine, and when he joined this message popped up.

It was really weird, Does anybody know what this means or why this happend?

it means you cant play on gamespy why ? i realy dont know but it has something to do with the serial code and game spy i think so you have to play on wol i have it to, bought a legal version and cant play on gamespy but it does it matter wol is big enough i sended a email to gamespy and they are still telling things to do what doesnt work so dont contact themand play on wol , thats the only thing to do

So, there is a way to page people on GSA via the host. Now we just need to figure it out.

its your cd key if 3 people use the same cd key and join the same game the third will get kicked out because it will allow a max of 2 of the same cd keys in..

weird thing here is... there are only 2 people in the game.. so i have no idea :S
