Uh...if it's cheaper, why does it cost 2,230 dollars while that other moniter only costs 1,600?

It's $2,230 - $690. $1540 > $1,699

I see.

Didn't catch that subtraction sign, thought it was a dash mark or whatever you call it.

msgtpain - what are you talking about, anyway?

Nice try, but you should leave Engi alone. Alkaline forgot to include the rebate, which is why he edited it. I noticed the prices, like Engi, but didn't say anything.

yet another reason that you should "always" quote what you're replying to, regardless of being the "next post" or not..

He could have edited it to change the URL.. how would you, or I know.. but if it were quoted, there wouldn't be much to discuss, eh?
