Mrs. Kerry's net worth = $1 BILLION

Mr. Kerry's net worth = $88 MILLION

Mr. G.W. Bush's net worth = $14 MILLION

Funny.

Dig a little deeper and you'll find that most of the Democrats in Congress are not much poorer than John Kerry. It's a funny thing why they were all whinin' and cryin' about how George W. Bush's Cabinet members are mostly multimillionaires when he first took office.

You could also turn it around and say that it at least proves that the Democrats are trying to tax themselves (=the rich)

It proves nothing of the sort. Most of them don't even pay income taxes, so the government could take away 90% of the paycheck from the wealthiest of Americans and it wouldn't affect them one bit. They mostly have their money tied up in untaxable accounts and such anyway. Democrats are only compassionate when it's to their convinence, you have to remember. They wouldn't make a new tax law unless they had some way of not having to pay the taxes.

That all depends on how you look at power.

I would say that controlling the vast resources and armies of America negates Mr. Kerry's lead financially.

Aprime! love Canada...

There was a poll done in Canadian schools not too long ago and the 60% of Canadian teenagers said America was evil.

I guess Canada needs to stop controlling its media, or we should just bomb them.

Fact is, they hate news, they barely know anything, they ignorant of what's really going on in the World, most of them even think that Baghdad is the capital of Afghanistan.

Their opinion doesn't matter until they finally grow up in maturity. At the moment, politics don't matter to most of them, it's something boring made for "older people" and "nerds".

Yeah, the government owns a media network, doesn't mean that they control everything that is said.

I find it sad personally when we start talking about politics in history class, even the teacher sighs.

I could also say that 9 out of 10 of the Americans polled in the streets of New-York didn't know where Canada was, and also thought that Canada was an American state.

Get your facts right, politics is no entertainment for most teenagers almost everywhere. I had a talk with one of my friends in the electoral campaign, he thought that Liberals were evil because they wanted to apply a rule about "teenagers been home at 10:00P.M otherwise they'd get arrested", which isn't true, it's only true in one county which was ours. Trust me, the media has nothing to do with what teenagers think.

I would think that those polls would be in terms of the administration, not the American people as a majority. The thing is, they're right.

It was an actual poll taken. Bill Oreilly has it somewhere.

And I was not talking about the Canadian run news. i am talking about making FOX news a premium channel. When CNN, NBC, and all other major news networks are basic cable. And don't say there are other news stations. I have seen the list FOX is on. the only other stations are special stations that people can order.

Meh, I don't doubt the poll. I happen to know it's true (at least from a general consensus) seeing how I deal with teenagers who are just beginning to understand politics nearly on a daily basis.

Yeah right, like if every cable provider made all of them premium channels, fact is, those channels aren't from this country, even if Fox has a Canadian version, and I'd also like to mention that it's THEIR CHOICE if they want to become a premium channel or a basic one, it's profit-wise.

You don't broadcast any of our channels, we do, you should feel lucky.

Um....FOX news people always complain about this. It is a Canadian decision not the decision of FOX news. That is why Bill Oreilly wants to boycott canada. Because of the AWOL guys you are keeping and your censoring of fox news.

Stop trying to pass it off as it is ok. Because it isn't. they have had to have gotten this from someone. Maybe their parents of the tv that they watch? they don't just get an idea in their head. And American kids don't think countries are evil. they would never say that about Canada.

I don't think you understood what I said. The people I work with don't care for the current American administration. Evil is a tad harsh, but it certainly isn't likable. I agree with them.

It is pure ignorance to say or think that Americans don't dismiss Canada in many instances. While this doesn't necessarily mean "evil", I'm going to stretch that definition as broad as possible. The number of times Canada has actually been commended by American people I know I could count on my hands. I've kept fairly silent on the issue because I can usually take a joke, but what you've just said is just blatant lies.

I suggest you tell your government to stop thinking that whatever you do is good, legal, moral, glorious, just, whatever. And I desperately hope you go away from this knowing that the surrounding world doesn't necessarily like the people you have representing your country. It's not propaganda that sways their opinion, it's fact.
