After beating Tiberian Dawn again after finding it in a box in my closet and reliving so many memories I have to ask about something.

Whats the song that plays during Nod's ending? In the credits it's labeled as "?" Nod ending theme. I would love to hear the full version of this song.

My personal Favorites:

Pharotek

Nod crush

Both from the Firestorm expansion pack.

I get the urge to play these about once every other month. I kind of rotate them, and right now I am back on Renegade.

Actually I bought the doom 3 pack and am having fun with that right now. I am too used to the Ren controls, and it's a very different set up to get used to. It included a demo disk for Doom 3 that looks very nice.

Have you heard Stomp and Initiate?
Both are awesome tracks that unfortunately were not featured in Tiberian Sun.

Negative. Try playing a game against the comp in regular TS, and look for those tracks. They aren't there. Only in the FS expansion. It's quite possible that with all the "packs" EA has been selling to squeeze money from the C&C franchise that they rolled it in, but I doubt it.

I could swear Pharotek was in there, because i heard it before and i dont have firestorm. I also remember pharotek playing once while i was in the WOL lobby and i knew it was called pharotek. Interesting... because i just booted up ts and it wasn't in the sound menu. mayb you have to earn it in missions? (i was using fresh install)

Actually these songs arent in multiplayer TS but they are in TS. On the nod missions these are available after the first couple of missions. They were later added to multiplayer when it was updated with firestorm. Pharotek is a favourite of mine as well. And I agree, Its a shame stomp wasnt put into TS, but at least it made it into renegade...
