No. You can always rip them from the game cds themselves.

do you mean in game footage? like gameplay? or the cool movies inbetween missions.

there was a site, with all the C&C a few RA and a few TS ones, but it shut down a few months ago :/

oh well, i dunno if there is another site. i wish someone posted them all up, but they owuld need a good big server, and a good amount of bandwidth.

You can rip them off the CD's with the XCC utilities, I believe it was xcc.sourceforge.net .

Well, then go out and buy them

Tiberian Sun should be pretty easy to find for €/$10 or so, TD is more difficult to find. They may be on the internet somewher but I doubt it, they are pretty large in size.
