I just got banned from the pitts server, and i was acussed of cheating eventhough i was running RG, and even ACK thinks that i cheat, i never cheated in my whole entire life, and will not cheat. But anyways, i was asked to get a ss, and i tried to get a ss, but my freakin luck just turned its back on me, and my comp suddenly froze, and that happens once in a while to me, and its my graphic card thats doing it. Anywayz i was about to take a ss, and my comp froze and my renegade exited to the desktop and i showd them the ss i took of the error i got and then they say that i photoshoped it, anyways, you guyz tell me if this ss looks photoshopped! Please be fair and squir, dont be like the MODs such as ACK, jarhead, gr8slayer, c4kiddy, because all they did was just ban me and not give me another chance, not that i really care about their servers, but its just that now anyone is gonna be thinking that i cheat! this is the link for the ss...

Stop being the drama queen.

You posted there. Its their decision, their call, not the communities. The rest of the community was not in the game with you.

I used to play on their servers on a regular basis. I know that while I have disagreed with some of their moderators before that has not stopped me from having a great time.

Hint: stay level headed in their forums.

He couldn't win on the pits forum so I guess he had to try and bring his sob story here.

Are you sure your running RenGuard? The image doesn't look photoshopped, but then again that could have been easily photoshopped . . . It's also very possible for you to have been cheating, The Pitts does not run RenGuard (Unless they now run it) Also you didn't need to bring your whining here, I read all that you said on The Pitts, your just as bad as the rest of the n00bs. . .

We are running RenGuard, but it is not required.
If you have some suspicious kills etc we simply force you to run RenGuard or you can not play in the server.

policepolice...and that happens once in a while to me, and its my graphic card thats doing it.

Here's an idea:

1. Stop overclocking your graphics card.
2. Set up a time and place where you can prove to the mods that you aren't cheating.
3. Stop bitching.

If I was good enough to get accused of cheating I wouldn't bitch about getting booted from a server on suspicion of cheating, I would either find another server or be a little more mature in addressing the moderators.

In other words:

"1 D0N'7 CH337, 817CH" is not acceptable in response to an accusation.

But the more I think about your attitude, the more likely it is that you were and are cheating.

How come when I view this thread, my browser plays music?

Yeah, attitude doesn't necessarily constitute the likeliness of guilt. Also, proving that you don't cheat at any time after the event is null, because people will think you removed everything from your data dir. beforehand.

I noticed something strange in that SS though.. it says you joined the server 3 times, but on none of the occasions you left? I'm guessing that was the result of your game prematurely ending.

Edit:

Ah.. gotta love these typical "I need attention" types.

"I don't care what you guys say!"

"I'm going to keep posting even though I don't care anymore!"

"I told you I don't care anymore, so I'm going to complain about it on a new forum!"

"Shut up all of you, I said I don't care!"

Actually, believe it or not, I've banned many people solely for being obnoxious. Whether they were cheating or not is irrelevant.

And on the subject of pathetic excuses, "skill" is often just a word that people such as yourself hide behind when banned for legitimate offenses like being a dickwad. (I'm not saying you/they ARE skilled, but just that you claim that's why you were banned.)

dude... why do you have a 265 KB 85x85, full animation gif image in your signature?

I mean, it's nice and all...but why do people insist on making a 10 thread Web page megabytes in size? ...I've never understood that.

Quote:Signature Image Size - Please keep them small as signature images should be. In other words it shouldnt be bigger than a few lines of text, or so wide that it stretches the forum page beyond its normal bounds. Just keep in mind that by definition a "signature" is a small signoff message. Anything larger than 3-4 lines of text stops becoming a sig and turns into "that big picture at the end of the post". Please also make sure that your signature image, if animated, is not over approximately 250K. This is to ensure that the modem users (yes, everyone doesn't have broadband) don't have any problems.

This also says it's not allowed in your signature either.

Hey.. if the rules are 250K, then the rules are 250K.. Its not my place to change them.. I personally don't like to see them larger than about 25-30K in my forums.. I mean, if someone wants to post a 1MB image, have at it.. I just don't ever see why that much weight is really needed in every single post that is made.. it's just mah opinion..

<- notice the complete lack of avatar and signature...

yeah... strange how it always starts with you saying how the pits mods don't know skill from shit on a stick... yet you were banned for being an ass, not because you were 'suspected of cheating'....

perhaps you should start a forum of your own where you can sit there and bitch and moan about the pits to everyone who'll listen to you... since all you seem to do is post your typical 'yeah they don't know skill from cheats' comment on every topic that has to do with someone being banned for reasons A through Z on the pits... oh well... guess i'm just giving the attention where what he wants... why else would someone who A. Doesn't like the pits B. Thinks all the players on the pits are n00bs and C. Would rather play with his clan buddies come to every single thread about someone being booted from the pits keep up with his bitchfest?...

yet you were banned for being an ass, not because you were 'suspected of cheating'....

Always follows the same pattern at the pits.

-1- Player is wrongly accused of cheating by a newbie mod

-2- Player says "I don't cheat"

-3- Newbie mod bans player for "being an ass"

Ask TankClash, Matri00, and virtually everyone I've ever been in a clan with.

I can't speak for others, but I banned TankClash myself.. that had nothing to do with anyone else in the community... I may not know skill from shit on a stick, but I do know when a Nod minigunner takes down a medium tank by themselves, especially when I'm standing there watching them in disbelief..

Birds of a feather flock together...

perhaps it's the "It's called skill (insert five page bitchfest about mods/n00bs and profanity)" which is so common among people who are banned and stay banned... but apparently you can't seem to see that people who show up and can actually refrain from being a Grade A asshole are usually unbanned or let back into the server after they explain themselves or agree to do their time...
