Imao.

To cut a long story short, the third release of renguard is up and going and the cheats are creating rumours that renguard contains spyware/takes up too much system resources etc. because they cant cheat anymore.

some servers are running renguard buy many are not because they are waiting for others to host renguard. the join by june 1st scheme made alot of server owners implement renguard but still, there are a few servers not running it.

i dont know much but that sums alot of it up theres also a interview at cnccommunity discussing renguard you take take a peek at:

DJMsome servers are running renguard buy many are not because they are waiting for others to host renguard.

Also, many of us enjoy banning the cheaters ourselves and see RenGuard as unnecessary.

Sw33t, do you have a mental disability, or are you just plain stupid. RenGuard works great, I have not once in a RenGuard server ever seend a cheater, and if you think that people can and do cheat in a RenGuard server, you are wrong and must suck at Renegade. What have you ever seen wrong with RenGuard?

I'm sure you will . . . I'm shaking with fear sw33t :rolleyes: If you can find out where I live than tell everyone where I live . . . I doubt you were charged with murder of an entire family, LOL your just trying to make shit up to make yourself look cool. Also, as I said before, what have you ever seen wrong with RenGuard? Are you one of those n00bs who thinks it wastes your computers resources, installs spyware, makes your game lagg, steals your cd key, ETC ETC ETC I have never had a single problem with RenGuard and neither has many of the people here. RenGuard works great and keeps cheaters out of servers running RenGuard.

I don't care if it makes me look like a moron. I hate spreejem, I'm going to take care of him once and for all. He has no life other than coming on these forums every single day, acting like he know everything. He has no girlfriend. If you do tell me her name, and how old she is. I have a girlfriend, her name is Brooke Davis, she is has brians and is sexy, We both live in Oakwood.

You Have no girlfriend and if you do, she is probably cheating on you for a peron who is more sensitive and doesn't have a job with the phrase "would you like fries with that".

Crimson, or some other moderator, please split this at the point sw33t and I started flaming each other and move it to the hot topics forum, or whatever it is, I don't want to spam up this thread with me and sw33t arguing and having users have to search through it all to find something useful.

You know what sw33t, your right, I have no girlfriend, and I don't really care right now, I want to wait until I'm in college, I believe it is too early in high school to start going out with girls and having sex and all that stuff, yes it would be nice, but I think it's too early, it's mainly because I am uncomfortable around girls and don't know what to say . . . Your girlfriend has brians? How interesting she has people with the name of brian . . . I know what you mean though, you meant to say brains. But then again so does pretty much everyone, so that doesn't really matter now does it.

Also, I do not yet have a job, no one will hire me until I turn 16 next year, and I can't get my driver's license until I am 16 1/2 and my parents will not drive me to my job. That is why I have come up with my own little way of making money while I wait to get a job, it's not too much, but it helps . . . (No, it's not selling lemonade). Why do you hate me, I have never done anything to you, I have tried helping you with your grammar with the whole placing commas and periods in the middle of two words, and you have listened, either that or you figured it made you look like a moron. Also I do have a life outside of these forums, and several people come to these forums every day, or just about everyday and post something, and I do not act like I know everything, if I know something I will post the solution, or get back to the person later, Yes I will show you how to modify the damage, speed, jumping stuff and all that later, but now it's 12:02 I was going to go to bed after I got water and went to the bathroom, brushed my teeth, and made sure the heater for the pool at my house was off, but then I remembered I forgot to update something on my site real quick, so I decided "What the hell, I'm already on my computer, I'll see if anyone posted something before I go sleep" and then I saw this and made this huge long post. So, you ever gonna find out my address, and come after me, and are you ever gonna do that match I proposed in your old post about the story you were writing? You also know that you're contradicting yourself saying I have no life coming on these forums everyday and posting, but guess what, you're doing the same thing!

Hi welcome back to the forums.

You may have noticed our forum has a new kind of troll. It seems he has a wild imagination, and regulary posts a lot of Bullshit. Just ignore him, and if you read one of his posts, remember he has the habit to tell story's that aren't true.

English should have a capitalised E.

And you have no authority in correcting English at all.
