Already downloaded it, now going through the time consuming process of patching.

I've already vowed not to go to sleep until I test at least one map.

I just finished testing Shallow Grave, and I only spent 5 minutes playing. The only thing I can say at the moment is this:

A poet should have taken my place in testing, as I cannot describe the awesomeness of this patch. Truly, this patch will set RenAlert WAY above anything else.

I'm willing to bet this might even be an article in a magazine....

Now I need to reinstall Renegade for RenAlert again since I had problem, so I had to reinstall all C&C games

I clicked the link, but nothing happens, its just loading, oh well, I'll install Renegede

PS: I'll become file mirror if needed

You don't need Renegade to play Renegade Alert. The only thing you need from a Renegade installation is WOLData.key, and that's only to play online.

I think you guys (SK i guess) should make woldata.key generator for the people who don't have ren installed but have a valid cd key.

Like for example if you don't have one you just run the generator, put in your cd key and then it encrypts it and makes the file.

See my situation is i lost my install cd but still have my game cd and cd key (have photos to prove) and its a pain because the only way currently i know of to get a woldata.key is to install ren.

Is it possible for SK to work out some kind of encryption method?

I'll put it up on my site and tell whoever it is on the RenAlert site I need to tell to get up there when it's finished. It will be slow, but normal for 56kers. Argh, why couldn't you have delayed .993 Until I get a paid server for my site . . . I can't wait to test this!

Ok, I got the patch file up on my site here . . .

Lol only took me 13 minutes to get at 192 kb

Anyways i just finished hosting since around 1am, and now its 921 am.

So if your wondering is it worth the download, yea it is every single bit.

I was hosting an 8 person server with no time limit or starting credits, and damn was it ever fun.

All i can say , is great job on the patch team, not much i can see wrong with it at all, so i think ill stick to playing this.

Massive load on my server . . . I don't like this My server is at my house, and I'm uploading like crazy, 10 minutes after I put the file on, at about 12:00 something this morning, if this gets through I'm lucky, been trying the past few hours off and on. . . Umm . . . just to let anyone know that's downloading off my server, if you could please just go to <http://egames.servegame.com> and click the Google text ads at the bottom that would be a great help. THX, Hope everyone enjoys .993, I haven't been able to play it yet because of my server. I need to play LAN with my bro, but that's kinda boring with only 2 people, I did a 1 player game and looked at everything but the naval units and light tank. . . Well, cya sometime later in a few days on RenAlert (after my server is done with this massive load right now) I hope.

Waiting for Silent_Kane to release the FDS. In my opinion they should have had that ready before they released. Everyone's running non-dedi's that lag like shit while I sit here with plenty of bandwidth at my disposal and nothing I can do about it.

I dont' understand why you can get gamespy to create a RenAlert lobby inside the CNC Renegade channel in gamespy arcade. I mean if they have stupid lobbies like GDI Baracks and guard tower, it wouldn't be hard to make a usefull lobby for Renalert and Reborn (Once the new patch comes out)

Ok i just downloaded it. Feels kinda cruddy to me. It's too similitive to red alert. And what is with the lag? Every server i was on had lots of lag. (BTW i got a cable modem.) And the opening screen was like above my monitor. Overall I think its a good mod but it's missing something, or perhaps has too much of something. It dosent feel like it used to thats all.

Well, for the first day or two, everyone's just playing around with all the new features and experimenting to see what they can do. I don't think it's really all that bad if there isn't a large multiplayer server up the first day.

I think I had that problem once, and here's how I fixed it:

Remove everything RenAlert from your computer.

Install ALL patches and installers in consecutive order. ALL OF THEM.

Then it should work. You might have to dig around a bit to find everything, but it worked for me when I had the same problem with .9925.

I was skeptical of this RenAlert "update" at first, but I tried it, and I have to say... This is like when I started playing Renegade online for the first time. It's the game totally re-invented. New tactics and strategies, new maps, vehicles, and so on.

Crimson's (lag-free) 32 player server was just a blast, I can't remember the last time I had so much fun playing Renegade.

I'm not just kissing ass when I say that, congratulations to the RenAlert team on making a fantastic mod, and I'm sure it'll only get better in future updates.
