Bare in mind there are 4 races.. Each race has it's own buildings, units etc.... and thats a screenshot on 56k quailty, course it's going to look like that. (And it's done on it's OWN engine.)

Reminds me of Earth 2150, was way ahead of its time thus not becoming such a huge success but was one of the coolest 3d RTS's ever!

I got into the beta as well. Things can get pretty messy in that game.

It a huge franchise consisting of board games , Card games , 3D games and much more. Its pretty cool. I never really got into it , Though. I had the board game a few years back. Its pretty fun but I prefere 3D games

Its kinda like a Huge war between races trying to dominate the galaxy.

I didnt know the beta was out , Im deffinitly going to get it right now.
