I've had this once and killed half the server with it (16 out of 32 players). It happened when I got stuck in the wall of the barracks somehow and threw my timed C4. After I had thrown the C4, I wasn't stuck anymore and waited for my C4, it was the loudest boink I had ever heard

Everyone thought I was cheating

I think it was his buddy who took the ss. Look at the name at who killed all the people. You can kind of make out "TM0wnage"

Its a glitch, it happened once on medical level, 1 nod soldier dropped a timed C4 and when it blew, it killed every GDI player on the level, regardless of their position on the map...

my friend got an orca and we flew to the edge of the map, he just flew on the edge by the edge so i could get on top of him, and i deployed a nuke beacon on top of him, causing it to fall though into blue hell
