If any of you just watched the president at a baseball game, its right up the road. I've played baseball games at that field hundreds of times over the years, its pretty cool that he's standing in the same spot i have that many times. Infact i'll probably be there riding my bike on thursday hahha i just looked outside, everything is dark but over the tree line its lit up like daylight were he is

I think everyone over here in the hot topics forum is always prepared for a controversial and heated debate...

So when we get to something like this, we don't know what to say.
But anyway...

Did you see a crowd of people or just the lights?
