I know this topic is meaningless to Renegade, but I would like to know if there is a good multi-messaging platform out there. One that will let me connect to MSN, YIM, ICQ, IRC, and AIM all at once. Please post the website for it. Also, there are a couple things I would like for it. It must have the Display Picture For MSN and Voice Chat For Yahoo! Messenger. Please, someone, anyone, find this perfect messenger for me!

I have, but, It has no MSN avatar support or Yahoo! voice messaging, both are essential needs in my criminal (i mean legal) workings.

I think it doesn't get better than trillian for what you are looking for. Soon, AIM and MSN will be making it "impossible" (probably just harder) for 3rd part software to access their servers, making Trillain obsolete, if not illegal.

Trillian supports MSN avatars in 2.0 .

It's a very good programm and u should download it, if u don't want to have 3 different messengers running

Those "patches" aren't even out, and as far as I know are only in speculation.
