I am having problems reading the in-game clan page. The Clan Flag Thing will not load and I cannot get the pictures to work, all there is is a weird red x in a corner of a box's outline. If there is a way to access the clan webpage from a browser, please tell me!

Click Clans, then you'll see a column of five buttons with defunct images

In order:

- Create a Clan
- Search Clans
- Browse Clans
- Leave your Clan
- Administer your Clan

its because EA have removed the images for some gay reason.
Its part of their plan to kill off renegade bit by bit...

Nothing you can do about it, just gotta learn to live with it im affraid!
