I requested a dedicated Server Serial number from http://renegadeserver.westwood.com

Are they actually gonna send me one? I just didn't know if the service is dead or not. Any advice at putting up my own dedi?

edit: I got my serial code and the server is up (very basic server though)

Can i get access to the server owners forum?

okay i figured out how to do most of the basic settings.
The server is up, so go test it out and tell me what you think..
It's called Whisky's All out War!!!

Need some advice on what bots to run and such.

run BrenBot, which can be downloaded from http://www.brenbot.com

then as soon as the NR public beta comes out, run that instead
