When I play on any server, after about 10-15 minutes I get connection interrupted, and thus removed from the game. I just recently started playing again and this is a new problem. I have a linksys router and it is NOT wireless. Please can anyone help, this is starting to deter me from playing this game, but this game is fantastic and I would like to be able to play this game without having to rejoin a server every 10-15 minutes.

Does this happen with other games? Meaning, is it your entire connection that is dropped or only in Renegade games.

This only happens in renegade games, all my other games run fine.

Are you using RenGuard? Or playing on RG servers without it?
