Pretty funny. It would have been more effective if they were talking about politics or something.

Now I will never believe a thing the liberal media says about SpiderMan.

"Hello and good morning, the first day of sovereignty in Iraq has been a deadly one for U.S. troops..."

Hilarious.

what in hell?

I'm rooting for the protest warriors here, dude. I'm saying their message was right on, because right after they flashed the signs, that came on.

Wtf else would I mean?

Oh, I get it now.

You made it seem as if the News story following the signs was a contradiction of their point.

Liberal Network such as CNN and many more. Has brainwashed many minds and corrupted them in many ways as such people like Al Gore who thinks he "Invented" the Internet and John Kerry for becoming a "Flip Flop" and a "Traitor" to America throwing his Medals away.

As Such...

We Must Rise Up Against These Networks Who Corrupt our Children and Destroy our Lives!

Again, Pak proves his retardation.

We get it, you can shut up now. For those who don't know Pak's story, he was abused by a walrus as a child, before being raised by a troupe of travelling used tampon salesmen.

He currently cannot vote for someone to take office in the United States.

He resides in anus most of the time, Canada the rest.
