This character will be Unadahms (Nod) starting character,

The Imp Warriror is 1.2 meters tall, thats small in comparison to a normal renegade character.

The Imp Character will be awarded with a Scratch type weapon, it will have all new animation sets for custom looks.

Model: TGZ
Texture: TGZ

And here we have a screenshot

That looks great... But you need to have him lean forward a little more, looks like he's about to fall over.

It looks awesome, and I also agree with Sir Phoenixx about the stance.

Can we see this character in the W3D engine?

Quite nice!!

I'm going to assume the Unadahns are some sort of power mad alien/demon warlords bent on conquering pathetic little Earth. That looks exactly like what I would choose as a foot soldier in my army if I were in their position.:twisted: Dumb, but powerfully built and capable of simple tasks(like driving a vehicle).

TGZ is very appreciative of your comments, The Unadahm team are civilisation living in the Underworld, they used to live with Orich (The Good Civilisation) until Unadahm was casted to the Hell, The Underworld.

Unadahm is a gothic/possessed/evil civilisation, due to being forced like this in the underworld.

Here is a screenshot of the Imp in-game, Psychoarmy has been working hard on the custom animation set, here is us controlling the Imp and a few running towards us.

I must admit, that is really nice. Probably because we've never seen any character like this in the history of Renegade, except for that dinosaur.
