well some of you know me... i work on ra2:vengeance.. and i dont seem to work alot on that mod(like some might think). 2 weeks ago i acheive the impossible by scripting a fire/reload animation.

YEA for age people was looking to enable it.. it even was told impossible to get back by some WW employe...

now i show u some test i did on my v3. btw people whining.. i want it i want it.. just stop it.. it will be public available in scripts 2.0... when u will use that script just thank me or give me some credits. Now enjoy btw dont mind the fps it has nothing to do about the scripts.. but just taking screenshots.. i tried it without taking screenshot and i didnt loss any fps.... always at 94 fps

2 version of that script is under way.. Jonwil is working on one.. and my is almost done for special reload/fire anim(version 2)

Good Work KGB Spy!!!

About the scripts, it's jsut a shame that Renalert bend all rules to heir needs and made JonWill to change the licence thing from GPL to whatever it is named. :huh:
Custom Scripts.dll was meant to be a OpenSource, now it has turned to a joke what will end up in 100 extra .dll's just so noone can 'steal' my great idea :rolleyes:

We've had this longer than him, so don't act as if we need his work to make ours better.

":rolleyes:" is starting to get annoying, it's over used here and it reminds me of Renardin.

That is the most random "sarcasm" I've ever seen.
