...but I will have my say.

I hate to vent like this on the public forum, but I was led to believe that the UN clan was one of the best in terms of skill and friendliness. I just spent several games on their GSA server and two UN members sat on top of the ridge in Hourglass with artys for 15 minutes after their first two rushes didn't work. Even though it isn't technically against the server rules, these are the tactics of a n00b with little in the way of skill. I resent being kicked after pointing this out (granted I did it repeatedly) and I have lost a great deal of respect I had for UN. Both for using the tactic and not doing anything about it other than making weak comments to stop.

C&C_Hourglass is a cool looking level, but it totally sucks for battlefield. It's all rushing.

My point was that it was UN clan members doing it, which surprised me.

I can hit you from there with Artillery. It's not fool proof. Either way though, Renegade sucks.

UN's clan members are extremely n00b-like.

consider me corrected, UN must stand for United N00bs

I wouldn't have even been on the server if WOL wasn't acting up. It keeps timing out on me.

Yet you ban people when they shoot you in the back you damn cry baby.
:rolleyes:

As for UN members or what not:

if it ain't against the rules then why the hell are you bithcing? HOurglass is a terrible map any way.

You can play to win or you can play to muck around :rolleyes: If your not using everything you can to win, aside from cheating ofcourse/using gliches (No I don't consider hil camping a glich because either team can do it), you're the n00b.

So let me get this straight. You go into their server to play. You see them participating in what the server considers a legit tactic. It is your personal opinion that this is cheap or whatever. You think everyone else in the server cares what you think, so you constantly annoy them. They get tired of it and kick you.

I don't know you or this clan, but from what I see here they did nothing wrong.
