I imported the w3ds awhile back to make that CliffsLX level and edited the skins, replacing them with c4kitty's snow skins. I didn't "perfect" those because I was not as experienced at the time. So I fixed them up and haven't really used them since. Oh well...

Here are the links to the Nod Flame Tank and the GDI Med Tank. They work on export (or they should, lol) and I hope you all enjoy using them in the modding community.

http://66.135.185.102/v_nod_flame.zip

http://66.135.185.102/v_gdi_medtnk.zip

PS: You want to export them to a unique name so there are not any w3d collisions. For example, v_gdi_medtnk.w3d, you may want to rename it to v_*_medtnk.w3d or mg_medtnk_*.w3d or whatever (I think you get the point)

ENJOY!

(If you find any errors, try to PM me and I'll fix them and update the link. Thanks.)

First error: It's a texture map, not a skin.

He said if you find any errors to PM him, not just post here.

Yes, screenshots would be nice.

Could you please help me by explaining the difference?

Edit: I only looked into vehicles for that CliffsLX map, haven't really looked at them since...

Men don't have PMS, and it wouldn't be wise to flatter yourself thinking I care enough to really get upset over how some of you incorrectly spell words.

Actually there is a sort of male Pre Menstrual Stress disorder.

Edit: Also a lot of the W3D settings aren't set , Unless those are proxies.

I did the best I could, tell me which ones and I'll update that as soon as possible.
