Hiya, I cant download the core patch, I tired making a new account, it wont let me only one ip per account, I tired asking for help, zunnie tired to help me but I still havent got the core patch, I tired restarting RG over and over till it starts to download the core patch but nothing.

Can someone delete my account on the RG site so I can remake it and hopeful redownload the core patch, or something? this is really stressing me out

I used to have the core patch but had to reformat my pc

Well looks like I spoke too soon, one of my allies of my clan, was happy enough to send me the download.exe for me to use, so now I can download it, maybe this should be hosted as a download, it would save so much hassle thanks flyingfox for replying it's ok, that thing gives you all the gameplay stuff from the core patch. kinda figured you'd be wanting that most.

It's a beta. The current build has a few bugs we know about. That is why I am not adding any more testers, until they can be fixed.
