I've seen that error before...

Also, if your always.dbs does get corrupted, Icedog is right. A reinstall is prolly for the best. Always.dbs and Always.dat make up like the whole game.

If alwaysdat = corrupt Then

Reinstall = old school

End if yea if u could send urs to me but that notice only comes up when im in renguard    i can run the game alone without it but there is no words no startup vids and i cant click multi/singleplayer etc so im pretty angry at it i downloaded the patch and all after i reinstalled    but before that it was fine but it lagged like hell  so if you would send it to me at spazbeast@yahoo.com

Yeah man Jesus, not one period in that sentence. And, have you tried dumping the whole Renegade and reinstalling?

np, easy fix. download http://www.dr-oblivion.com/leveledit2.zip follow the instructions with it. Now load a completely new mod package. Dont mess with anything and export a mix to your desktop. BAM you have a brand new always.dbs ready to go.

yep.(there happy) i just fixed that prob, now i have no words or letters anywhere. for example when you're trying to install the game the licence agreement is nothing but the box itself, and 2 other empty boxes. same as in the game. cant get anywhere juat the backround,music,and empty boxes.(punctuation sucks.....how come we dont gotta say comma and period when were talkin'???)

Punctuation and capitalization both help make your posts actually worth reading.  That's why.
