Are you bored?

Some of those are funny, though.

"Windows has detected that your mouse has moved please restart so that changes can take place."

Lmao, that was great.

EDIT: Woo, I made my own...

j4S[p]Not exacly a windows error window... but I made this in my spare time, lol.

LoL my name is Gary

And no Mac doesnt suck *that much *

If you get used to it, you might even perferr it to windows...

As for me being on windows since I was 7 really makes it hard to get used to other operating systems like Mac, or Fedora (installed on my other computer)

Why use windows if you don't like? Just get linux and stfu.
And you can stop with the spamming.
