One of the last unfinished Westwood maps for Renegade, C&C Mines is the answer to what many people have wanted for a long time. The map is based around a civilian mining town who harvests tiberium for their own profits. GDI and Nod decided to get in on the act and now they're both battling it out over the extensive tiberium mines and the town itself. Screenshots will be posted as soon as I get the map to a development point of where it looks good.
