Sorry about my english:
well its finally happening red alerd 3 is coming

EA working on new C&C Red Alert game

"We are very proud to announce that the team that brought you Command & Conquer Red Alert 2, Command & Conquer Yuri's Revenge, and Command & Conquer Generals has officially started work on our next project set in the Red Alert universe," he wrote.

Referring to the Sage graphics engine used for Generals, he added: "Expect us to leverage and continue to evolve this powerful engine as we start work on our new Command & Conquer game."

An EA UK representative we spoke to today declined to comment, citing the absence of an official announcement at the present time, but fortunately for you and them, Skaggs' email said to expect one "soon".

mewhywhy, look at what EA did to the C&C name already. Look at Generals. That's the first all-EA C&C game, and they killed the name right there.

All EA does is care about their revenues. They could care less if the game is great, just as long as it sells. They know that the C&C community is huge and very loyal, so they know a lot of people will buy it just because of the C&C name.

If they cared at all, they'd sell the C&C name to some other company. They could get A LOT of money off of the name, and save the C&C name, but that won't happen because EA is greedy as fuck.

Red Alert 3
Mark Skaggs
EA
Red Alert "Universe"
Generals
"Command & Conquer: Series of goofy, tongue-in-cheek wargames"

These are enough to convince me NOT to get RA3.

yeah im definately not gonna buy RA3. If I buy it just to see what its like and it sucks, thats the worst possible outcome. By doing that Im making EA think their products are good and their running their company right.

I HATE EA, I HATE GAMESPY. I refuse to give these companies any money. EA destroyed C&C. I care more about the Star Wars Petroglyph game. The Sage engine sucks

I don't mind small mistakes, but when you're going to change the entire meaning of the sencece it's probably best to fix it.

Anyway, back on topic. I'll probably download it and test it. If it's any good I'll buy it.

It's a shame, I was hoping that they'd create the next game in the Tiberian storyline.

I won't condemn the game until I know alot more about it, but I hope it doesn't turn out to be another Generals.

Somehow I'm glad that EA isn't making a Tiberian game. They'd screw it up anyway. The Red Alert 'series' (RA2 and YR, not including the first RA) on the other hand, is already very cheesy and comical. I won't mind another entry to it.

I just hope they won't try to link RA2/YR to TD.

(Although it'd be kind of interesting to see all that Renegade 2 material in RA3) nah i dont think they will. RA wasnt suppost to be comical... so basically EA has already fucked up the series with RA2. It was a fun game to play, but they offered little support for it and ruined the original storyline intended by Westwood. Plus Generals was the first RTS made by EA and that just proves they have no idea what they are doing. Compared to every aspect of RTS blizzard is just light years ahead of them

No, RA2 was made by Mark Skaggs's team at EA/Westwood Pacific (which is now at EALA). They also made Nox, Generals and BFME.
