SE is recruiting for players of all abilities for Half life 2: Counter Strike Source , Renegade and Star Craft: Brood War.

We are a new clan that is emphasising on the players themselves not on the higher ranked players, it doesnt matter on your playing ability, those that feel they need training in the above games will get it from our players and from our clan leader - SE-Emerald.

Other games may be added to our clan if there is enough interest in them to be played in the clan.

The Clans aim is to play games and also to have fun.
