Yes, every person who says "MOD" is using an abbreviation, same for the ones who say "NOD" for Nod and "ION" for the Ion Cannon Beacon.

Just thought I'd point something out... There are a lot of people who capitalize MOD. I've seen at least half a dozen sites who do that. Does it make them "illiterate?" No. It's just the way the person does it. So, IMO, there is no use in trying to correct the "spelling mistake." The person trying to is fighting a war he/she just, cannot win.
