This is what ive gotten from it: cassie is actually like a 30 yr old man who lied about his age and lied to the UN clan after the UN clan helped him set up IRC, his servers and all other whatnot. Then thats when he talked in TS and using a voicechanger to sound like a girl. Then they later heard his real voice and banned him from basically life on the UN servers/Forums/TS and whatnot. Then cassie threatened to hack PaulC's computer (PaulC is a member of UN clan).

This person seems to just be bluffing. I doubt that heshe has the ability to hack a computer when heshe cant even decide what gender heshe is

So where are all the real white women at?...I liked him better as a chick. Actually, never of 'em & definitely weird. I think some anonymity is important, but I like to know who I'm really playin' with especially on TS & such. I don't blame PaulC for droppin' him like a bag o' bricks.

So, let me get this straight.

You guys all say lets let the creepy old guy who pretended to be young and talk to young kids a second chance.

Doesn't anyone think for real now adays? He obviously has problems if he's some 30 year old guy, he COULD VERY LIKELY BE trying to get a child to trust him and meat up somewere with him to kill / rape them, someone with a mind as sick as this does not need a second chance, he needs to be interegated by police.

This guy is fucked up, end of story and remember this, it doesn't matter how good of a renegade player he is, that doesn't mean he's a good guy, look at me

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Well thats why they banned him. If he lied about something of less importance, then they probably would have been more leanient. There may have even been an explanation for it. But this is something pretty serious to lie about.

If you are a cross-dresser, ok you freak me out a little, but if you turn out to be one ugly 17 year old girl (with a beard) then, thats something totally different.

Think of it this way: you're a fifteen year old, Renegade-playing boy, and some seventeen year old girl goes, "Oh hey, you live in Boston, so do I!" You play together for a bit, get to know each other, she suggests a meeting. Now being a fifteen year old boy, a chick invites you somewhere that seems to have everything in common with you, you'll bite at the chance. You make plans to meet, go to some restaurant, she doesn't show up, but this weird thirty year old man sits down instead.

Now if that's not creepy... well, I can understand the ban.

refusing and lieing are two different things. You must understand that the UN clan WALKED him through HIS server, IRC, and TS2. They were friends with this guy thinking he was actually a young woman, and he has the audacity to lie to them. Its like a slap in the face.

ZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZOWIE!

As the UN Clan leader, I was pretty much willing to let this whole thing blow over. At some point in the future, you would be able to play our servers as your reputation faded with time.

However, you have crossed the line you stoopid fjuck. I for one am not a racist. I am CERTAIN that there are some in the renegade community that I deal with daily, but they keep it to themselves. When you are openly racist, I have no choice but to ban you for life. So sorry Cassie/Justin, I understand the sillyness of youth, we were all young once, but you have just gone too far.

Please keep in mind that I have the IP address of your fathers laptop. I am more than willing to contact his place of employment and tell them that he has been hacking our systems. I dont know, but I think that this would probably bring a shitstorm to your door.

In addition to the link above casie/ jason what ever your name is heres a reason you could find your self in a large shit load of trouble for this.

1. The FBI wont think its funny or a joke.
2. Death Threats and Hacking threats can realy get you in trouble both with your isp and with authoritys so before you keep this childish game up try growing up.

The rest of you if i left anything out feel free to add it.

S/he asked if I would please consider NOT banning him/her from our teamspeak server. Guys, I cant help it. I am SUCH an idiot. I didnt ban him/her from teamspeak. I figured s/he's just a kid, cut him/her some slack.

Ok. my bad. Based on this thread and the rant of hatred, the ban is back cassie/justin. Sorry dood. I tried to work with you and be nice about this, but you just had to cross the line. And you know what would be really cool. could you please enumerate the 10 things that UN did to you that were so bad?

was it helping you get your server up and running? was it letting you use our IRC server? was it letting you use our forums to advertise your forums and servers? because if thats a problem, we can stop doing that in the furture for others....

I think I felt better about him pretending to be a girl, than the new threats...

Jason, I understand that you have been disgruntled for whatever reason, but there is absolutely nothing these guys could have done to you to warrant your threats. Best thing for you to do is move on, throw your Renegade game away & find a better, more constructive way to channel your energy. If your threats & tyraids are a joke, then it's not funny. If you're serious about all this, then you have problems that need to be dealt with now. You are at a pivotal point in your life at 17 where the actions you take now will forever change your life course. The biggest "loser" in this thread is you & you can change that by re-directing yourself now. You have the ability. Be a better man.

I think the best thing to do for everyone else involved is to simply ignore his threats, ban his IPs & enjoy the game w/o him.

Also... If u hated UN for 3 1/2 years why were u buddy buddy on their forum and at that why were u even on their forum? Hey IT no one likes u, u can't hack, and if u do, ur asking for a world of hurt. because u post in forums ur ip is tracked. Your ISP will be notified instantly and ur ass is technically grass. Besides that if u are even able to hack, which I highly doubt you can, when u do that u give urself the opportunity to be sued off ur ass. So why don't u just pull that stick/dick out of ur ass and fade away!

Well here is my point of view. You see a involved player in your community. He joins teamspeak and uses a voice mask. Gets to know some of the members. Some suspicions arise that she is in fact a he!

You threaten him with a ban if he/she does not reveal who he/she is.

From my point of view , Your clan started it. I don't see why you are complaing , Unless I obviously missed something?

I'm curious as to what Cassie whatever would have done had the rest of the clan not found out that he was a guy. And also if he hates everyone in the clan so much, why he stuck around.

What did you put for gender?

I like how "it" keeps making references to how "fucking gay" everyone else is, yet "it" seems to be confused with "it's" own gender.

Have fun in the military, and remember, don't ask don't tell. :tellme:

Cassie
and w1ley, or whatever ur calling urself now, u should really delete all usernames that are banned/ or not apart of UN anymore...its kinda a waste of space on ur server....

Huh,
well people who know me, know that I dont hide behind aliases.
You will not that my signature has my Clan name (PaulC=[UN]=). Note the "PaulC" part. Thats my name. Paul, last initial "C". There are too many Paul's in the world, so I go by PaulC, have for over 20 years. As for w1ley... Note that its a 1x3, as in 1 alpha, 1 numeric followed by 3 alpha. Thats my FCC call sign. I, unlike you, have nothing to hide.

And I think Sickoptemetrism is correct, I pray to God that you really are going into the military, they will beat this silliness right out of you.

shit like this is exactly why renegade will die. Stop being mean to new members unless they do something to provoke it. Cassie should die and rot in hell, but dont piss and moan because they are trying to warn you about someone who is doing something stupid. They are only trying to help.

He's just saying that this soap opera shit shouldn't go on here. This thread should have just been, "Watch out for this fucktard. Here are his IPs. Ban him, fuck his computer up, do whatever." Instead, it was this whole soap opera deal.
