Thank you for visiting our website and also for your generous membership contribution to the American Civil Liberties Union.

Through the years, the key to our success and our greatest source of strength has always been the support of ACLU members who understand our freedoms can never be taken for granted – they must be vigorously defended or they will surely be lost.

I am glad to know that you share our commitment to defending freedom. I pledge to you the best efforts of everyone at the ACLU as we work together to protect liberty.

Sincerely,

Anthony D. Romero
Executive Director
American Civil Liberties Union

It was a mere $5. The pleasure that I've already derived from this is already worth more.

You all do realize that more or less the only thing the ACLU does is file lawsuits protecting the Bill of Rights...?

Do you realize they also spread propaganda...oh wait, you wouldn't. You think that everything that comes out of there is truth.

Remember, kids:

If information is spreading that is against your views or is damaging to people or organizations you side with, it's propoganda.

As far as I'm concerned, the ACLU is on my shit list. They stand firmly against my religious beliefs, and there's no way in Hell I can support an organization that clearly states that they're against my faith.

It was $5 bucks, and it was purely for my enjoyment. I get to laugh at the fact that I will be an "official ACLU Card Carrying Member". Not to mention that I will receive ACLU updates in the email that will be influential in my quest to create a successful conservative media outlet.

I may be wrong, but didn't the ACLU say they supported the guy who is saying that those who died in the WTC on 9/11 were nazi's and stuff?
