Meanies.

Make a site at <http://www.freewebs.com> or <http://www.angelfire.com> etc and then go to <http://www.dot.tk>

Register and you can have your site as follows: www.<yoursitename>.tk or you could stop being so lazy and pay £3 a year for a .co.uk <http://www.ukreg.com>.

webpace is relatively cheap too, especially if you get a friend to host your site. My clanmate hosted mine (thx again rev).
