not sure where i need to put this or if it's been known but i think if you don't use CP1 you can see people who got stealth crate compared to people who have CP1 and can see them stealthed as i know people who can see stealth and i know that i've been shot at before by ppl when i had stealth crate so i'm just guessing that those players don't have CP1 either.

dunno if you can fix that or not
