Why's the domain name <http://www.n00bstories.com/renforums> when you purchased the domain <http://www.renegadeforums.com/> ? When you go to the second link it just redirects you to the first one.

Is it going to stay this way?

Unless I get a new web host, yes. I don't intend to hide the fact that n00bstories sponsors these forums anyhow.

Dude...

That is just a redirecting URL, she didn't buy any hosting, since she hosts it here, that means you only need the url, and that's the URL
