Yeah, so I made my own template and added this scan line background, but.. does anyone know a way to fix the scan lines for FireFox? It screws up in FireFox, but looks fine in IE.

What can I say, I'm a perfectionist. I know that it's designed for IE, but I would like it to look perfect in Firefox too

Seriously I cant see what's so bad about the lines. Just count it as a firefox only feature

Don't worry, I won't forget I'm in debt for it. You'll get paid once I get cash.

I can't give you anything if we don't get the money from it yet...duh? I'm thinking you need all the help you can get, so my suggestion to you is this: don't skip school anymore, AJ.
