Ya you need to place those textures on those two models. Textures make the model, and please make some good ones, dont stay completely with the WW ones. Oh one more thing, if you are going to use those ingame REDUCE THE SIZE .

The chronosphere is useless unless you use it to "create" vehicles like in the RA1 mod.

This is the shot I modeled it from.<http://www.n00bstories.com/image.fetch.php?id=1067858473>

Because there my version of them, the ones on Red Alert 2 don't have interiors and I can't get all the texture on them.

Let the weather Control make it rain, like when an Ion strike is approaching
