He was pointing out his score, not his kills.

My score yes, plus that i have most kills on a 50 player server (non00bs).

People that didn't see that are just... Stupid.

I see...

In that case, this is a waste of a thread and naamloos, you fail at life for starting it.

Captain Havoc (T1TAN_OZ_) and SeniorSnipe(Neversheath_OZ_) have both got more than 127 kills in a game. over 130 I believe.

NaamloosDon't worry, most people hate eachother around here. Flaming is part of daily posting and most can't take a joke. All mods suck for some reason and 80% of us are idiots.

Yes, that's the renegade community we have.

yup, thats true!

I've had the score: 1337, 1234 & 999 before!
never 911

Yeah he did have a volt rifle but you gotta remember we had no moneys

If you look at the screenshot u see me with jus 300 points and 124 ladder. (I virtually did nothing jus a few kills with a shotgun on some 1000 chars)

An example of how the ladder system totally sucks =)

I got a K\D ratio of 184:2 back in the days. Then again it's exactly hard to get that high on a 50 player server.

This one time I joined a game while GDI had lost its base defenses, War Factory, and Barracks. I bought an APC and drove it to their base, and every sweep I took across the base I ran over at least 5 people, it rocked, lol.
