Dante made the GUI version of BlazeRegulator, not BRenbot. Either way it has nothing to do with him being a mod.

Hence the name BlazeRegulator. Not DanteRegulator. Nopic's a little retarded though, so give him a break.

Dante... I thought he bowed out months ago. I can't even remember the last time he was here.

Well seeing as he rarely comes here, there wouldn't be a point of making him a mod.

He was mod of the Mod forum for some time though I think.

Dante, at several points in time, has been a moderator here, but not currently.
