Nah, don't worry about it. Things got sorted out, and that's the past. I really do hope you get your troubles sorted out, try not to double-post in the future though.

thank you so much crimson only thing i have a problem with is with the fact that ur support chat isnt a support chat. everyone i talked to (lightning especially) didnt believe me and critisized me saying that u definety did it. I know i have no say in it but i dont think lightning should be in ur suport chat. and again ty crimson for solving this.

lightning isn't BHS.

He is using the BHS logo as his Avatar.

The only official supporters in the BHS chat are people with @ or % in front of their names.

We have a limited support staff based all around the world, so we're sorry that we can't provide instant help 24 hours a day.

In every map, with any character. It's a game bug, not a cheat.
